Dear Valued Client:

While change and transition associated with an acquisition can be difficult, Crosstex and NAMSA have been and will continue to work closely together with the common goal of making this change as seamless as possible for our clients. Our clients are critical to our success and your satisfaction remains paramount.

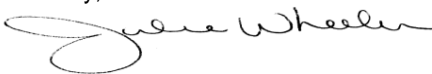

Since the acquisition was finalized on March 1, 2016, orders are to be placed and checks made payable to Crosstex. While change related to payment occurred immediately upon close, most manufacturing activities are continuing to occur at NAMSA per the existing Quality System and Standard Operating Procedures (SOPs). The manufacturing activities will be transitioned from NAMSA's Northwood, Ohio, plant to a Crosstex facility in New York over the next few months. The transition of the manufacturing activities will occur in stages, by product type, and will be communicated as they take place. See our website www.sterilizationproducts.com for the most up-to-date information regarding the transition.

The focus of this communication is to provide detail associated with vendor (Crosstex) information, payment and ordering, all of which changed upon the closing March 1, 2016.
